INTRODUCTION

Enhancing Financial Innovation & Access (EFInA) is a Financial Sector Deepening (FSD) organisation, established with support from the United Kingdom's Foreign Commonwealth & Development Office (FCDO) in 2007 and has since 2009, received funding support from the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation.

In Nigeria, EFInA is renowned in the financial sector, for providing thought leadership geared towards achieving financial inclusion and championing the unbanked. By funding and catalysing innovation, providing cutting-edge research, advocating for inclusive policies, and building capacity, EFInA's Access to Financial Services in Nigeria' surveys and other research have served as credible sources of information for policymakers and regulators, including the Central Bank of Nigeria (CBN), the National Insurance Commission (NAICOM), the National Pension Commission (NPC) and others, to formulate regulations and policies. EFInA has a strong focus on promoting digital financial services, and in recent years has taken a leading role in supporting an emerging FinTech sector in Nigeria.

Our work is garnered through advocacy and capacity building; digital financial services; innovation; and research. Data is critical to the work that we do at EFInA, it drives our research, gives direction to our advocacy, our capacity building and innovation efforts. In accessing and processing data, we are mindful of privacy and protection concerns, and compliance with extant legislation, such as - the Nigeria Data Protection Regulation 2019 ("NDPR") which has set the standard for data protection in Nigeria.

This Privacy Policy (the "Policy") is specifically in respect of personally identifiable information. It describes the sort of information we collect, what we do with it, how we protect it and the rights of the persons whose information we have processed. Please read the following carefully to understand our practices with respect to personal data and how we will treat it. We take the collection, usage and security of personal data seriously and only use personal data in accordance with the law and the consent of those whose personal data is on our custody.

1. DEFINITIONS

If you access a third-party website through our website(s), Personal Data may be collected by that third-party website. We make no representations or warranties in relation to the privacy practices of any third-party provider or website and we are not responsible for the privacy policies or the content of any third-party provider or website. Third-party providers websites are responsible for informing you about their own privacy practices and we encourage you to read their privacy policies. Third parties include search engines, providers of measurement and analytics services, social media networks and advertising companies.

4. COOKIES

A cookie is a small file of letters and numbers that we put on your computer with your consent, which enables a web server collect information from your web browser.

Cookies allow us to distinguish you from other users of our website, which helps us to provide you with an enhanced browsing experience. For example, we use cookies for the following purposes:

- Recognising and counting the number of visitors and seeing how visitors move around our website when they are using it (this helps us to improve the way our website works, for example by ensuring that users can find what they are looking for);
- Identifying your preferences and subscriptions e.g. language settings, saved items, items stored in your basket and Prime membership;
- Ensuring the security of your account;
- Mitigate the risk of fraud; and
- Sending you newsletters and commercial/advertising messages tailored to your interests.

5. TRANSFER

5.1. Transfer of Personal Information Overseas

Some of the third parties we disclose personal information to may be based in or have servers located outside of Nigeria, including other overseas countries where third parties are located / have servers]. Where we disclose your personal data to third parties overseas, we will take reasonable steps to ensure that data security and appropriate privacy practices are maintained. We will only disclose to overseas third parties if:

- you have given us your consent to disclose personal information to that third party; or
- we reasonably believe that the overseas recipient is subject to a law, or binding Policy that is substantially similar to the NDPR and is enforceable.

In pursuance of a Data Subject's right to request a transfer of personal data, if you wish to transfer your data to a country deemed to have inadequate data protection mechanisms, EFInA in seeking to obtain express consent from you, will inform you of the potential risks, upon which you can base your decision.

6. PROTECTION

6.1. How We Protect Personal Data

EFInA has put measures in place to ensure compliance with extant legislation and regulations on the processing of personal data in Nigeria and the UK, including the NDPR. Follow link to learn more. <https://ndpr.nitda.gov.ng/Content/Doc/NigeriaDataProtectionRegulation.pdf>

6.2. Data Processing Principles

In collecting and processing personal information we uphold the following principles:

- We collect and process personal information only for the purposes to which Data Subjects consent.
- Our data processing practices are adequate and accurate without prejudice to the dignity of human persons.
- We store personal information only for the period which it is reasonably needed.
- We put measures in place to ensure that all personal information in our custody is adequately safeguarded against foreseeable hazards and breaches.

In addition, EFInA deploys the following measures:

- having a robust physical security of our premises and databases / records;
- restrict access to personal data to personnel on a need-to-know basis;
- having technological measures in place (for example, anti-virus software, firewalls).

7. RETENTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

We will not keep a Data Subject's Personal Data for longer than we need to. In most cases, this means that we will only retain personal information for the duration of the Data Subject's relationship with us, unless we are required to retain the personal data to comply with applicable laws, for example, record-keeping obligations.

8. YOUR RIGHTS

The Rights of a Data Subject include the following:

- To be informed about how Personal Data is stored and used
- To request the rectification, amendment, or correction of personal data
- To request the deletion of Personal Data
- To request access to Personal Data
- To be informed about how we obtain Personal Data
- To be informed about appropriate safeguards when personal data is transferred to another country
- To request the restriction of the processing of Personal Data
- To revoke consent to process Personal Data

EFINA will endeavour to keep your personal information accurate, complete and up to date. If you wish to make a request to access and / or correct the personal information we hold about you, you should make a request by contacting us at cnwaiwu@efina.org.ng.

To Your ability to exercise these rights will depend on a number of factors and in some instances, we will not be able to comply with your request e.g. because we have legitimate grounds for not doing so or where the right doesn't apply to the particular data we hold on you. Where you have provided consent to our use of your data, you also have the unrestricted right to withdraw that consent at any time. Withdrawing your consent means that we will stop processing the data that you had previously given us consent to use.

9. EFInA's RESPONSIBILITIES

Taking into account the nature, scope, context and purposes of processing as well as the risks of varying likelihood and severity for the rights and freedoms of natural persons, EFInA shall implement appropriate technical and organisational measures to ensure and to be able to demonstrate that processing is performed in accordance with this Policy. Those measures shall be reviewed and updated where necessary. To ensure data protection and privacy of Data Subjects, EFInA shall:

- Protect the privacy and confidentiality of personal data and assets against unauthorized access, and be accountable for acts or omissions in respect thereof;
- Obtain the written consent of Data Subjects to collect and process their personal data for specific purposes and provide them with the option to withdraw the consent at any time;
- Not transfer personal data of Data-Subjects to a third party without their express consent, except in compliance with a legal obligation;
- Inform consumers whenever their data is exchanged with an authorized third party, stating details of the exchange;
- Review data processing and privacy procedures to ensure that the purpose(s) for which initial consent was granted remained valid; and
- Keep accurate and updated data of Data Subjects.
